

29th Annual Antique Power and Country Craft Show

August 17, 18, 19, 2018

This show is sponsored by the Belmond Area Arts Council. It is located 2 miles north of Belmond, Iowa on Highway 69 and one mile east. It is held at the Jenison-Meacham Art Museum and Farmstead.

The show is open to artists and craftsmen of all mediums. This is a handmade/handcrafted show. Our priority is to offer a place for artists and craftsmen to sell the handcrafted items. In keeping with the fact that the event is located at the Art Farm we try not to allow MLM/Vendor type items.

A letter informing you have your booth location will be sent out August 1, 2018.

Show Hours

Friday 9 am to 6 pm

Saturday 9 am to 5 pm

Sunday 10 am to 3 pm

Set-up Times

Thursday 4 pm to 8 pm

Friday 6:30 am to 9 am

FOOD...Several vendors are on the grounds.

NO SMOKING...is allowed in or near the craft area. This policy is strictly followed.

ADVERTISING...Advertising for this event has already begun in "Power Show" publications. The local areas have posters hanging in prominent places. This event is also advertised on our website and Facebook page. However, it is always helpful if you, as a participant also let your group of followers, friends and family know where you are going to be.

PARKING...There is plenty of convenient parking. You may unload near your designated building. But, you MUST park your trailer and vehicle across the road in the hayfield.

CAMPING/LODGING...There are several camping and lodging options nearby.
